Support for Obama on Health Care limited in Virginia

Raleigh, N.C. – Only 38% of Virginia voters say they support Barack Obama on health care while 49% say they are opposed, Public Policy Polling’s newest survey finds.

There is very little backing for Obama on the issue in the state beyond the Democratic base. While 76% of Democrats are with him on it, only 24% of independents and 5% of Republicans are.

Overall the President’s approval rating is 47%, with 49% disapproving. Those numbers are improved from PPP’s poll of the state a month ago, which showed his approval at only 42%.

“We’ve polled on health care nationally and in three states that Obama won,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “In each instance voters have said they oppose his plans. It’s clear Democrats are losing the message battle on this issue.”

PPP also took a look at George Allen’s current standing with Virginia voters. 50% of them have a favorable opinion of him to 38% unfavorable. 31% of respondents said they would definitely vote for him in a future run for office, while 36% said they definitely would not.

Tim Kaine’s approval rating this month is 47/38, up from 42/40 a month ago. Mark Warner’s approval is 54% and Jim Webb’s is 47%.

PPP will release the final part of its Virginia poll, looking at voters’ opinions about the Presidents since 1980, tomorrow.

PPP surveyed 596 likely Virginia voters from August 28th to 31st. The survey’s margin of error is +/-4.0%. Other factors, such as refusal to be interviewed and weighting, may introduce additional error that is more difficult to quantify.

Complete results are attached and can be found at www.publicpolicypolling.com.
